

Cornette Will Speak Saturday at Inauguration

DR. JAMES P. CORNETTE

Dr. James P. Cornette will be officially inaugurated as the third President of West Texas State College on Saturday morning, Oct. 2.

Citizens of the Panhandle have been invited to attend the program which will be held at 10 o'clock in the administration building auditorium, and the reception which will be held at 4 o'clock in the cafeteria. Members of the Board of Regents will be here for the inauguration. Dr. Cornette will be presented by Judge W. L. Kerr, president of the Board of Regents.

Many colleges and universities will have representatives in the professional which starts at the museum building at 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning. The oldest college to be represented will be University of Michigan, founded in 1817. Practically all colleges in the Southwest will have representatives. The youngest college represented will be Eastern New Mexico College by President Floyd Golden, an ex of West Texas State, founded in 1934. Dr. Cornette came to Canyon on January 1 of this year and served as executive vice president until Sept. 1 when he succeeded Dr. J. A. Hill, who was completing his 30th year as president and 38th year as a member of the faculty.

City Buys Pipe For New Water Well For Plant

The City of Canyon has received 526 feet of 16-inch pipe for the new water well which will be drilled in the near future on the city property west of Canyon.

The pipe will be used in casing off surface water in the new well.

The city has called for bids on drilling the new well, which will be needed during the peak load during the coming summer. The well will be approximately 525 feet deep, according to sand found in the well which is now in use on the property.

Lioness Leaders Conduct Regular Lion Meeting

With Lioness Andy Walsh, chairman; Lioness A. K. Goodman, secretary; Lioness W. J. Wooten, Jr., as tall twister; Lioness Audrey Crossland, program chairman, the ladies, who stated they did not care to hear Dr. James P. Cornette speak, took over the Lion Club meeting on Thursday night and conducted it according to their interpretation of a regular meeting.

Approximately 100 persons attended this outdoor meeting held at Conner Hall, and marking the annual Ladies Night meeting.

Among the out of town guests were Deputy District Governor Phillips of Amarillo and Zone Chairman Bob Wear of Hereford with their wives.

Andy Walsh, president of the local Lions Club and Edgar Williams of the local club, attended the meeting at Borger Tuesday, honoring Lions vice president Petrie of Lions International.

Church of Christ To Have Meeting

The Church of Christ announces a series of meetings beginning Monday, October 4th. Earl L. Craig, of Colorado City, Texas, who for four years was a resident of Canyon, is to be the visiting speaker. The singing will be under the direction of Olin L. Huff, of Canyon.

There will be two services daily: at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Collections will be taken only on Sunday. This series begins Monday evening, October 4th and will continue for ten days. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Street Sweeper To Be Shown in Canyon Monday

Canyon will have a street sweeper here for demonstration next Monday. The city commission will see the demonstration and citizens are invited to the demonstration.

Mayor W. A. Warren says that there is a clear need for a street sweeper but the city commission has not decided how it can pay for such a machine. After the machine is demonstrated, the city commission will talk about terms and decide about raising the necessary money for the machine.

A lift has been bought which will be used in conjunction with the street sweeper, if the machine is bought.

Mr. Warren states that upon investigation street paving in Canyon is deteriorating rapidly because the gutters are filling up with trash and should be kept clean. He believes that the city would profit by buying the sweeper, and with the lift these machines could do more and better work than a large crew of men.

Need of Garbage and Sewer Tax Is Subject at Rotary

Delbert Lowes discussed the need of a garbage collection tax and a sewer charge at the Rotary Club luncheon.

Canyon has $124,000 outstanding bonds, which will be paid off in 13 years. The tax rate is $1.50 per $100 valuation, and the city takes property at 25% its true value.

The water collection and city tax are sufficient to pay operating expenses after a fashion. Four men are employed to empty 1200 garbage cans weekly and to keep 12 1/2 miles of paving clean. There is not enough money to do an adequate job in either department.

Canyon is one of the very few towns which collects neither a garbage fee nor imposes a sewer charge. The city is confronted with the absolute necessity of a new sewer plant within three years. If the city collected a 75c sewer charge for three years it would have $27,000 toward building an adequate plant. Those who have studied the question believe that this is the logical step to take.

If a garbage fee is collected, requiring covered metal containers, another truck could be added and garbage removed twice a week instead of weekly.

According to a survey taken by A. & M. College, nearly every Panhandle town imposes such charges, and give better service.

A resolution was unanimously passed endorsing these charges, and Mr. Lowes was instructed to continue with this work. He is calling in citizens to discuss the problems and to make recommendations to the city commission. Several members spoke in hearty approval of the plan advanced.

Visitors were: C. E. Wright and J. B. Hunter of Canyon; B. H. Crandall of Mountainair, N. M.; C. R. Janack, J. E. Bowman, Jack Allen, all of Amarillo.

H. D. Clubs to Sponsor Flower Exhibit Saturday

The Randall County Home Demonstration Exhibit Committee will sponsor a flower show Saturday, October 2, in the showroom of the Lindsey Motor Company from 1:30 to 4:30 p. m.

This show is open to all amateur flower growers and all flowers must be home grown. A single flower or any number in flower arrangements may be shown. Each exhibitor will be responsible for his containers.

This show is the high light of the Home Demonstration Clubs' work in landscaping for this year.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Bill Howse, of Wichita, Kansas, who visited last week in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Harrell, was accompanied to Clovis by her grandmother, Mrs. E. D. Harrell to join Mr. Howse. Mr. and Mrs. Howse will be in Clovis about two weeks on business. Mrs. Harrell returned to Canyon Sunday.

Mrs. J. C. Dowd with her sister, Mrs. G. S. Ballard of Amarillo, visited in the home of her brother, J. B. Rowan at Spring Lake last week. Mr. and Mrs. Rowan returned with them and visited in Amarillo Friday and spent the Night in Canyon Friday.

Mrs. H. R. Fulton, Sr., Mrs. H. R. Fulton, Jr., Mrs. O. A. May, Mrs. Alvin McDonald and Miss Debra McDonald visited in Silverton Sunday in the home of the parents of Mrs. H. R. Fulton, Jr.

Invitation To Inauguration

The Regents of the Texas State Teachers Colleges and the faculty of the West Texas State College cordially invite the citizens of Canyon and Randall County to the inauguration of James P. Cornette as president of the college on Saturday, the second of October at 10:00 a.m. All citizens are also invited to the reception to be held in the lobby of the cafeteria at 4:00 p.m.

Four Issues in Schools Favored by Voters Here

Only 345 voters in the Canyon Independent School district went to the Polls Saturday to vote on the four proposals which were submitted in order to carry out the consolidation of 15 common school districts with the independent district. All four of the propositions carried by large majorities.

The vote on the first proposition, to cancel the $75,000 bond issue carried 302 to 43.

On the second proposition, that bonds of all consolidated districts be assumed by the new district, carried by a vote of 304 to 35.

On the third proposition, to vote new bonds in the amount of $100,000, the vote was 303 for to 36 against.

The last proposition, to set a uniform tax rate of $1.50 on all property in the new district, carried 283 for and 32 against.

The new school board canvassed the returns Monday in order that action could be started to sell the bonds and pay off the debts which have accumulated since improvements were started on the school plant after the original bonds in the amount of $75,000 were voted.

Trespassing Does Not Require That Signs Be Posted

Men and boys of Canyon who wish to go hunting are warned that under the laws of Texas they are trespassers when they go onto the land of any persons without permission from the owner. It is not necessary to have "posted" signs up in order to keep out hunters.

There has been so much damage from hunters killing live stock, cutting down fences, starting grass fires and other damages that the new law was passed on this subject.

Trespassing is a serious offense, and those who hunt must secure permission before entering any property.

Another law is being violated in that boys are shooting rabbits along the highways. It is against the law to shoot game from the state highway. Some boys have the idea that just so they do not shoot across the highway they are within their rights. The law provides that shooting from any point on the state highway right-of-way is illegal and dangerous.

Miss Erdman's Book Received in Canyon

Copies of "Lonely Passage" by Miss Erdman have been received and placed on sale at Warwick's.

The book has been well received by critics over the nation.

Copies of previous books by Miss Erdman are also on sale at Warwick's.

Marine Veteran Brought Home For Burial

SGT. JAMES (Speedy) WRIGHT

Funeral services for Cpl. James (Speedy) Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wright were held Wednesday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock in the First Baptist Church with Dr. Roy L. Johnson, pastor, officiating. Military honors were under the direction of the American Legion and V. F. W. and the military escort from Ft. Worth.

Cpl. Wright was killed on Mindanao in the Philippine Islands on May 17, 1945 while serving with the 236 Marine Bomb Scout Squadron beyond the ordinary line of duty.

"Speedy" as he was known to his many friends in this vicinity was born at Adrian, May 23, 1925. He moved with his parents to Canyon when he was eight months old. An outstanding athlete and a leader among the student body, he was graduated from Canyon High School in May of 1943. He had enlisted in the Marines in March of that year and was called into the service on May 20 just a few days after receiving his diploma.

His boot training was taken at San Diego, California. Then he trained at Norman, Oklahoma; Cherry Point and Camp Le Jeune, N. C. He went overseas with the Marine Air Corps on February 1, 1945.

Active and honorary pall bearers were Lewis Hales, Robert Avert, C. L. Roberts, Wayne Wirt, Billie Brown, J. Spencer Winn, Lowell Abbott, Donnie Avert, Joe Byrd, Leroy Wooten, George Black, Elwyn Morton and Billy Boling, all schoolmates and life long friends of "Speedy."

Surviving are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wright; one sister, Mrs. Tom Slack of Perryton and one brother, Charles, who is a sophomore at West Texas State and a member of the Buffalo football squad.

Interment was in Dreamland Cemetery under directions of Griggs-Warren Funeral Home.

Grand Jury Started Investigations in District Court

A new session of district court opened Monday with a new grand jury starting investigation of law infractions in Randall county.

Judge Henry S. Bishop empaneled the following on the grand jury:

L. W. Cole, foreman; Clarence Adcock, J. B. Anthony, W. R. Crow, M. S. Downing, Raymon Kimball, Glenn Dowlen, A. E. Wise, F. L. Keeter, Jno. L. Brandt, Wilson Campbell, Jno. H. Burgan.

C. P. Shelnutt and R. H. Long are bailiffs.

Seven persons were indicted by the grand jury during a session Monday. Welton T. Flowers and Carl Gardenhire, reportedly held in jail at Lamesa, were indicted on charges of automobile theft.

The two men are charged with theft of an automobile from Nola-belle Welch, West Texas College instructor, last July 12.

Kirk Sanford, Amarillo negro, was indicted on a charge of aggravated assault in connection with the shooting of a second negro out at Buffalo Lake last Labor Day.

Sanford allegedly shot the second negro following an altercation over a fish that had been caught on Sanford's line.

Other persons were indicted for wife and child desertion, aggravated assault and receiving and concealing stolen property.

Johnson's Name Likely Go On Official Ballot

The question still is, will Lyndon Johnson get his name on the official ballot?

Developments of the last week are: The federal circuit court turned down the appeal of Johnson to lift the injunction given by Judge T. Whit Davidson at Dallas.

Johnson took his appeal to Justice Hugo Black of the Supreme Court, who lifted the injunction, but referred the matter to the entire United States Supreme Court.

Judge Davidson announced he will take no action until officially notified. His two investigators will continue their work in the three counties of South Texas.

The Supreme Court will not convene until Oct. 4, and may or may not act at that time.

Johnson is attempting to force Secretary of State Brown to certify his name. It is reported from Austin that sample ballots were being mailed to all county judges in Texas without the name of a candidate for senator on the Democratic ballot.

Brown states that he has no authority so far to put Johnson's name on the ticket, but will wire all county judges by Oct. 4 if the injunction is lifted.

Absentee voting starts Oct. 12, at which time the official ballots must be completed.

While in Texas President Truman endorsed Lyndon Johnson for senator.

Palo Duro Rifle and Pistol Club Held Contest Sun.

The Palo Duro Rifle and Pistol Club held its second rifle shoot last Sunday. Members of the club and several guests were present.

The guests who participated in the shoot were W. B. Fielder of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Max Dutton, Mr. Briggs of Canyon.

Hubert Young shot the best average, scoring 70 points out of a possible 100.

Other high shooters were Jack Nunley, W. B. Fielder, Bill McCabe, James McCabe, and Robert Dunaway. Robert Dunaway took high on one firing, hitting the bulls-eye five out of five.

The Palo Duro Rifle and Pistol Club will hold its next by-monthly meeting Monday, Oct. 4 in the Administration Building of the West Texas State College in room 211 at eight o'clock. All persons interested in the sport of shooting are urged to attend this meeting.

Four Churches in Canyon Will Hold Revival Meetings

Pastors of four of Canyon's churches have announced revivals to be held Oct. 13-24 at the Assembly of God where W. J. Phelps is pastor; First Baptist where Roy L. Johnson is pastor; First Christian where Weems Dykes is pastor; and First Methodist where Hubert Thomson is pastor.

Two local young men, Bob Goodwin and Jack Mucky, will preach at the Assembly of God, while at the Baptist church Evangelist John Osteen of Amarillo, and Youth Evangelist Charles Wellborn of Fort Worth will be the preachers, and George Stokes of Plainview will direct the music.

At the Methodist church Jordan Grooms of Levelland will be the preacher and music will be under direction of local forces headed by Glenn Truax. The Christian church will have Evangelist G. C. Schurman, and his wife will direct the music.

The pastors extend an invitation to all the friends of these churches to attend these meetings.

Randall Will Have Exhibit at Tri-State Fair

H. E. Shahan, County Agricultural Agent heads the committee appointed by the Fair Association to make preparations for the county exhibit. Other committee members are Charles Gibson, Assistant County Agent, Ted R. Kelley, Veteran's Vocational Agricultural teacher-coordinator and Lloyd Devin, Canyon Vocational Agriculture teacher.

Featured in the Randall County exhibit will be the crops of major importance grown in the county.

The planning committee is issuing a call to farmers, gardeners, ranchers and producers to submit samples of products to be used in the exhibit to give a true picture of Randall County products.

"Standard varieties of garden and field produce and any unusual products will be welcomed by the planning committee. All products should be left at the County Agent's office on or before Saturday, October 2, preferably a few days before Saturday if possible," H. E. Shahan said. Perishable items may be left and they will be kept under refrigeration as long as possible. Some of the perishable items may need replacing during the week of the fair and the committee will appreciate assistance in securing fresh supplies during the week.

Any information on preparation of specimens for entry in the fair, on prizes, and on suitable exhibits may be obtained in the County Agent's office.

Canyon Day at the Tri-State Fair Is Set for Oct. 5

Next Tuesday, Oct. 5 has been designated as Canyon day at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo.

Schools will close for the afternoon, and it is expected that most citizens of Canyon will participate in the event.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Johnston and Mrs. Burney Slack returned last week from Dallas. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston attended the County Commissioners Convention in Dallas. Mrs. Slack visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wilcher at Grand Prairie.

Mrs. Gordon Johnson of Red Boiling Springs, Tennessee, arrived Tuesday to visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Young and daughter. Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Young are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harden are in Glen Rose where Mr. Harden is taking medical treatments.

Former Star of WT Brings Big Team Saturday

Odus Mitchell, former star athlete of West Texas State College, will bring his North Texas State College Eagles to Buffalo Stadium Saturday night favored to win one of the Panhandle's most important intercollegiate football games this season.

Mitchell, who won 18 letters in five sports when he starred at West Texas, has a big, fast team which last week romped over the Randolph Field Flyers, 84 to 0.

Coach Frank Kimbrough reported his West Texas State squad came out of last week's game with Abilene Christian without any new additions to the injured list. The Buffaloes defeated ACC, 41 to 19, and for the first time this season, Harold Dalton, regular starting guard last year, played.

The advance sale of tickets indicates a capacity crowd of around 7,200 will see the North Texans and the West Texans tangle. Tickets may be reserved by contacting Clark Jarnagin, College Bookstore, Canyon, or by telephoning him at number 37. Reservations range in price from $1.80 to $2.40.

Mitchell's coming back to his Alma Mater for the first time as a college coach is occasion to recall some of his exploits while he was at West Texas, in the early and middle 20's.

Mitchell played end in football, center in basketball, first base in baseball, singles and doubles in tennis, and starred in track as a high jumper and pole vaulter. He is considered the greatest all-around athlete in West Texas' history and one of the greatest ever turned out in the Southwest.

His Eagles have won two straight Lone Star Conference championships, and last year lost by only one touchdown to the University of Nevada in the Salad Bowl in Phoenix, Arizona. Two years ago, his eleven trounced Alonzo Stagg's College of Pacific in a post-season game in Texas.

Kimbrough and Mitchell played against each other in their college days. Kimbrough respects Mitchell as one of the top coaches in football today. "His teams at Pampa and Marshall were outstanding in high school circles and today he has made a name for himself at North Texas," Kimbrough says of Mitchell.

One of the high points of interest in Saturday's game is because of the presence of former aces of Canadian High School on each team. Bill Cross, the Canadian Comet, is the Buffaloes' chief scat back, while Bill Lalicker, the Canadian Express, is the Eagles' greatest broken field speedster.

Indicative of the high interest in the game is seen in the fact that the entire Floydada High School football team will attend the game, the coaches believing more real football is likely to be seen Saturday night than at any other time this season in the Panhandle.

H. W. Beverly Was Appointed Election Judge in No. 9

The commissioners court has appointed H. M. Beverly as election judge in precinct No. 9, South Amarillo.

The appointment was made following the resignation of E. L. Shofner, who was appointed early in the year.

Mr. Beverly held elections in that precinct for several years and has given very fine service to his part of the country.

Bradford Black, who is a student at Baylor Medical College, Dallas, visited from Saturday through Wednesday in the parental W. C. Black home. His mother, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Lon Davis, in Floydada, returned to Canyon with him Saturday.

Sign the Pledge to Get Kicked Off Demo Group

The State Democratic Convention held recently at Fort Worth is seeking to put the brass collar on the Democratic Executive Committee of the 254 counties of Texas.

A resolution was presented by Jimmie Allred, directing that all members of every County Executive Committee in the state should take a pledge to support the Truman-Barkley ticket, and in case they failed or refused to take the pledge they should be removed from office by the State Committee and loyal Democrats substituted.

Naturally there is something back of the Allred resolution. Jimmie was honored by the people of Texas when he was elected Attorney General and then elected Governor for two terms. He was true to the principles of President Roosevelt and was rewarded by a soft job on a federal bench. He could have stayed there the balance of his life, with an annual $20,000 salary.

But along came Pappy O'Daniel and upset the Democracy of Texas. Pappy didn't give a whoop about wearing the brass collar, and showed his independence, which was dubbed Republicanism by Roosevelt and Allred.

Allred was ordered by the White House to resign and come back to save Texas from Pappy when he ran for U. S. Senator. Jimmie came. Pappy won.

Then came the show-down. Roosevelt re-appointed Jimmie, but the Senate turned him down. That was a tragic blow to Jimmie. Groceries are high and Jimmie's law practice has been nothing to brag about.

But here is a chance for Jimmie to get back in favor with the White House. "Little Harry," as he is dubbed so frequently rewards his friends and punishes his enemies. There seem to be plenty of the latter in Texas. As a matter of fact it begins to appear that Harry has more political enemies in Texas than he has friends. Those who attended the Fort Worth convention were amazed at the strength of the Dixiecrats.

But the regular Democrats prevailed at Fort Worth, and Jimmie saw his opportunity. He got through a resolution which is very much in keeping with the Truman policy of punishing your friends. Jimmie may think that the time is ripe to get another fat federal job should he play the political game and get in strong with the White House. He hopes that Truman will win in November.

At any rate the resolution went sailing through and now it is up to members of the 254 county committees to sign the pledge, or be kicked out.

What is our guess? Most of these committeemen will sign and then do as they please in November.

When you go into the Democratic primary in Texas you are supposed to put on the brass collar. Naturally party officials should be counted upon to be loyal to party. Most of them would have voted the Democratic ticket in November without a resolution. But a lot of committeemen in Texas are pretty sore about this useless resolution, passed for the simple political benefit of Jimmie Allred.

When party officials are confronted with such a pledge, it simply means that they are branding Republicans as being unpatriotic and unreliable, and throws a glowing halo around the heads of every Democrat. Everyone who has studied politics knows just how absurd this is. There are as many patriotic citizens in the Republican party as in the Democratic party. There are no more grafters in the Republican party than in the Democratic party.

Allred and his followers forget that without Republican support Wilson and Roosevelt could never have been elected.

It is pretty certain that when November comes around, most Texans are going to tell Allred and the State Executive Committee to go to hades and will vote as they see fit. Their vote may be for Truman, or it may be Dixiecrat, or it may be Republican, and even Wallace, and as always the Prohibition and Socialist parties will get a few scattered votes. At least these votes will be the sentiment of the people of the state, regardless of the brass collar the Democrats are trying to put on the voters.

If you never have voted in a general election in November, be sure to do so this year. There are eight important constitutional amendments on the ballot. In addition to this, Randall county's representation in the 1950 conventions will be determined by the number of votes cast in 1948 for governor of Texas. The ballot will be a whopper in size, but will be easily and quickly marked. Vote on Nov. 2.

Judge Davidson recommended to Lyndon Johnson and Coke Stevenson that they have another run-off in November. Coke agreed, but naturally Lyndon refused. Being top man in a million vote contest, even though this lead is only 87 votes, is safer than no lead.

Dollars count. It seems that Uncle Sam is doing a pretty good job of buying the good will of Europeans. At least America is getting the jump on Russia in the United Nations conflagration, now in session in Paris. But over in Berlin the Russians are seeking to do everything but start an actual shooting war.

Old age must be creeping up. We have passed the point of thinking it is absolutely necessary to rush to the fire and get in the way of the boys who are trying to put out the blaze.

Defense contracts won't hamper regular production for civilian consumers, say more than half a cross-section of industrial executives polled by the National Industrial Conference Board. Others feel that shortages—chiefly in labor and raw materials—will follow any attempt to satisfy demands of consumers and national preparedness together, with consumers the chief sufferers.

The chief mineral products of the state of Montana are gold, silver, copper, lead, zinc, petroleum, manganese, coal, natural gas and asbestos.

A legislative committee is studying the school problems in Texas in order to report to the next session of the legislature. This committee has not recommended, so far as we have seen, that apportionments be made entirely upon school attendance. That is the way East Texas cheats the Negroes out of educational facilities, and making easy sailing for the white taxpayers. These districts collect on a head count, but deprive the Negroes of schools in order to relieve the taxpayers in the school districts. When a reform in apportionment is recommended, we shall become interested in a report of the committee.

Congratulations are due to Dr. James P. Cornette and his able faculty on the enrollment record attained this fall at West Texas State. A substantial increase in attendance can be well cared for in the college. A big increase might have been disastrous because of the lack of facilities for handling such an increase. Canyon has grown during the past few years, and therefore more facilities are available. An annual increase in attendance will be the aim of the college administration, and such an increase may be adequately housed and instructed in needed courses of instruction.

When Selective Service was set up on a four-county basis, Dr. S. H. Condon protested that headquarters should be in Canyon because of the large number of young men. It is now revealed that he was right. There are 2261 registered in the four counties, but 1010 of them are from Randall county. Deaf Smith county has 725 men of military age, leaving 526 from Castro and Parmer counties. The young men from Randall county who are called for military service will be put to serious disadvantage by having to report to Hereford.

Over in Louisiana when the governor wants something passed he calls the legislature in session at 10 o'clock at night. Practically by morning his bill is passed. Well, it may not be quite so fast, but plenty fast enough. This happened when the State Executive committee ruled the Truman-Barkley ticket off the official ballot. Young Huey Long is the new Senator and Cousin Earl wanted young Long to get in better standing with the White House. The voters will now have a chance to express their opinion on the question.

Regardless of the outcome of the present senatorial contest, we believe that Judge Davidson is right in demanding that a thorough investigation be made in the block voting of South Texas. Johnson will probably hold his slender lead, but if illegal practices have been going on in South Texas for 25 years, it should be stopped, and stopped now. The contest may prove a distinct blessing to the state. Political waters are getting so muddy that both contestants are looking pretty drab to the voters.

We have a letter from Texas Republicans expressing all kinds of optimism over the coming election. These fellows talk as if they expected to win the Governorship, and the U. S. Senate office. Maybe they will, but we seriously, most seriously doubt it. In fact we'll bet almost anything, up to a dime or two, that they are kidding themselves. But as we said recently, if we had any idea of not supporting the Truman ticket, we would certainly vote for Dewey, as much as we dislike the looks of his upper lip.

They have a queer way of doing things down at Huntsville. About 20 years ago the public school superintendent was a member of the legislature, as well as local superintendent. Now they have elected a member of the college faculty to the legislature. The Attorney General has ruled that it is okay to hold two state jobs, but that only one salary may be drawn. Wonder if that practice helps Huntsville in the legislature.

Just what do the American people want in political leadership? We shall soon know. Truman is fighting with biting words, calling the Republican leaders very unkind names. Dewey on the other hand is using soft terms. Four years ago it was Dewey who was in the fighting mood, while Roosevelt was laughing it off. Is that what we want, or does any one know for sure what we want?

One of the most serious problems that confront the people of this nation is water. We are right up against the water problem here on the Plains. But we are not the only ones who are confronted by this same problem. Right along the sea shores, both east and west, the water level has materially dropped in recent years. Air-conditioning and increased irrigation is said to be the cause of this water problem.

We had just about decided the other day to lay off of this column for a few weeks and rest our brains and the readers' patience. But along came a very kind man, who has been our friend for years, and complimented this column. We never could resist kind words, even though it may be somewhat tinged with flattery.

No wonder the President is using fighting words. Another poll says that Dewey is "in" by 24 more electoral votes than necessary. Harry doesn't like that one bit.

Politician Runs on Plea to Do Away all Profits

A candidate for the United States Senate recently made a campaign speech at a labor picnic. In it, he told his audience of 5,000 people that "profits are responsible for the high cost of living."

It is evident that a great many politicians will attempt to ride into public office with vote-getting appeals such as this. They are the kind of appeals which will attract a following among those who have not had an opportunity to learn the facts. And, for that reason, it is all important that the truth about profits and their influence on prices be given the widest possible distribution.

Industry and business are making profits. They must if they are to keep going. It is profit which pays investors for the use of their money, and which permits the spending of billions for more and better plants and factories and stores which make better jobs. The profit system has been the cause of this country's unequalled standard of living.

The profit earned varies from enterprise to enterprise. On the cost of most goods, manufacturers retain, after they have paid their bills, six or seven cents on each dollar received. If they earned absolutely nothing the cost of commodities could be reduced very little.

The retailers who distribute the goods also make a profit, and this too varies in different fields. The food stores, for instance, usually keep, as profit, about two cents out of each dollar spent by their customers. Other kinds of stores may earn five cents or a little more. In any event, if the retailer earned exactly nothing for serving you, your living budget could be cut by only a penny or two on the dollar.

To argue that profit is the primary cause of high prices is rabble-rousing of the worst kind. Profit is one of the smallest items in industry's ledger—infinite smaller, for instance, than wages. And without profit the American system of government could not exist.

For homelovers without homes, after a flurry of false starts and fancy demonstrations, Lustron Corp. finally is in production. Its promise: during the winter, one porcelain-steel fabricated house every nine minutes, made in the world's two largest (180-foot) ceramics furnaces.

16 other makers of prefabricated dwellings plan an efficiency-cooperative system, embodying group purchasing of materials, allocation of sales territories, common sales agencies in each area. Hitch: the difficulty of proving they are not conspiring in restraint of trade.

DuPont is plugging its new synthetic textile fiber, orlon, as just as revolutionary as nylon. Based on natural gas or petroleum or both, it's expected to fill the price gap between nylon and rayon. It is resistant to damage from sunlight, chemicals, high temperatures and insects.

Fire danger, most feared feature of auto wrecks, may be lessened by an automatic ignition-cut-off developed by a Deleware, Ohio, firm. When oil pressure drops suddenly or the car tilts, sparking automatically stops, reducing chances of igniting gasoline fumes.

Good news for older workers is reported by the National Association of Manufacturers' industrial relations division. It shows a trend by management to retain older employees in record breaking numbers. Workers between 45 and 65 have increased by more than 3 million since 1942.

Five Additional Faculty Members Announced for 1948-49 Session

Dr. Roberts

Dr. J. B. Roberts, a former member of the faculty at Sul Ross State College has joined the current faculty here and will teach in the Department of Education. He is the third professor holding a Doctor's Degree added to the West Texas State faculty this year.

Bright

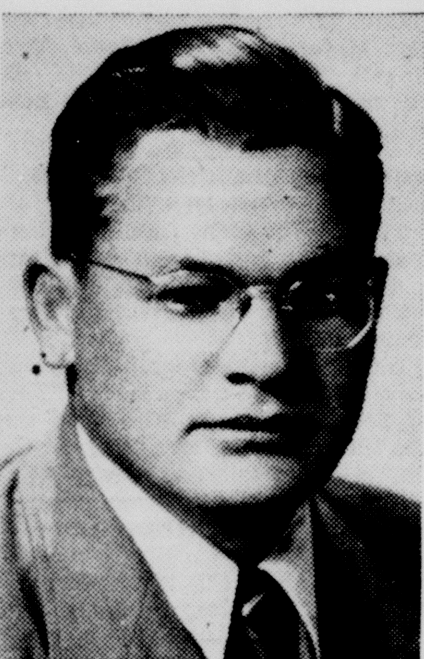

Houston Bright, former member of the Music Department, has returned this year to his old post after two years at the University of Southern California where he worked on his Ph. D. in Musicology. A Canyon resident, he received his B. S. degree in Music and Master's in Education from West Texas State. Mr. Bright served four years in the Army, saw service in Germany and was discharged as a captain in 1946.

Woodrow Wilson was the last President from the State of Virginia.

Cupell

Miss Wilma Cupell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Cupell, 2901 First Street, has joined the faculty of West Texas State this year as Assistant Librarian. She received her Bachelor and Master's degrees in Education from this school in 1945 and 1947. Miss Cupell taught intermediate grades one year at White Deer and one year in the Canyon school.

Smith

Kennard Smith who will be the Appraiser at the Veterans Guidance Center in West Texas State has been a member of the White Deer faculty for the past two years. He is a graduate of this college and did graduate work in the University of Birmingham, England. He is a member of the Lions Club, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the Officers Reserve Corps.

Stoelzing

Lewis L. Stoelzing, new member of the Music Department at West Texas State, has degrees in music from Southwestern College in Kansas, and Texas Tech. For the past three years he has been director of the Lubbock High School Band. In the college he will teach orchestra.

Socialized Mines of England Fall In Production

Before they were nationalized, the English coal mines were inefficient by American standards. But they did a fair job of getting the coal out. They paid large sums in taxes, and they earned some profit for their owners.

Since nationalization, the mines have paid no taxes—yet have sustained heavy operating losses. Coal production has lagged, in spite of all the optimistic hopes of the Labor government.

Various reasons are held to be responsible for this. And one of them is that, under nationalization, no one has any real responsibility or any reason to do his best. The mine managers are political appointees, secure in their jobs. The miners themselves are at the mercy of the government. They do exactly as they are told, and they are without redress if the government's decisions don't suit them.

The American coal industry, on the other hand, has been making remarkable production records. It's owners and operators must make good or go broke. American coal miners have a powerful union which bargains for them with the employers. They are free to work or not to work as they choose. Mechanization—which has cost the operators millions upon millions—has eliminated much of the drudgery and greatly increased each miner's daily output. The result: The American miners work a relatively short week and receive the highest wage of any comparable industry. The average miner earns about $70 a week, and many earn $100 or more. In coal mining, as in everything else, free enterprise makes the records and shares the benefits.

State Governments will hear from U. S. truckers this year. The American Trucking Association plans a drive to make them (1) set up effective highway planning committees, (2) build new roads if they want to collect tolls, (3) stop collecting tolls when roads are paid for, (4) aim highway taxes at all beneficiaries.

Friends of Vice Presidential candidate Barkley are concerned over his campaign schedule. The plan is to send him—one of the Democrats' most forceful speakers despite his 70 years—to every section of the country.

Miscellaneous Shower Honors Bride-Elect Betty Jo Baber

One of the loveliest parties of early fall was a miscellaneous shower given in the home of Mrs. Pat Baber Monday afternoon to honor Miss Betty Jo Baber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baber. Miss Baber is to be married to Mr. Alfred W. Moody, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Moody of Amarillo, Friday evening at the home of her parents.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Pat Baber, Miss Betty Jo Baber, Mrs. A. W. Moody, mother of the bridegroom-to-be, and Mrs. Joe Baber, mother of the bride-to-be. Miss Baber was gown in brown moire made with a fitted bodice and ripple peplum over a semi-circular skirt. She wore a corsage of golden dahlias. Other members of the house party wore corsages of baby dahlias presented to them by Mrs. Olin Huff, cousin of the honoree.

Beautiful arrangements of dahlias and snapdragons were placed throughout the spacious entertainment rooms.

The tea table was laid with a cut work cloth and centered with red roses flanked with blue tapers. Silver tea service and crystal and silver serving dishes completed the table appointments. Mrs. F. E. Stallings, aunt of the bride-elect, presided at the tea service and Mrs. Charles Marshall, cousin of the honoree, presided at the guest book.

Hostesses with Mrs. Baber were Mrs. B. A. Burrus, Mrs. J. J. Wright, Mrs. A. B. Odum, Mrs. W. L. Avent and Mrs. L. D. Winn.

Mrs. Onus Wells, sister of Ross Service, has returned to her home in Oklahoma City after having visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Service.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Holland of Muleshoe visited with friends in Canyon over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Heafner and family of Mosquero, N. Mex., are visiting in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mickle and his mother, Mrs. Beulah Heafner.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Campbell of Wildorado visited Sunday in the home of Mrs. Charles Flesher.

American Policy Toward Russia Is Being Cemented

Those who are charged with the responsibility of creating and administering foreign policy are always faced with one grim imperative—the Soviet Union so determined to get what she wants in the world that she will go to war if other techniques of aggression and expansion fail? No one, obviously, can provide a definitive answer as yet. The architects of global policy in Washington, no less than the men on the ground in the troubled regions of the world, must proceed on assumptions and theories which may or may not prove to be correct.

The argument over just how far Russia will go has many facets. There is one school, and it is probably still in the majority in this country, that holds she will stop short of war at this time because of her many internal weaknesses. There is another school which has come to doubt this. Time and Tide, an influential London weekly, recently said that the Soviet leaders "are determined to have what they want by almost any means, and perhaps by ANY means." David J. Dallin, a well-known authority on present-day Russia, has written in the New Leader that "the Kremlin no longer questions the conclusion that war is bound to come—if not tomorrow, then the day after."

George Moorad, author of the much discussed book, "Behind the Iron Curtain," now says that war is not only inevitable, but has actually begun.

So we have the two extremes—those who are convinced Russia will not fight, and those who are equally convinced that she will, and possibly very soon. Then there is another school which says frankly that it doesn't know whether she will or not, but has a program which it believes must be followed regardless of the outcome. Writing in Newsweek, Henry Hazlitt accurately presented that school's point of view in these words: "The chief reason we have been losing the cold war with Russia is that we have remained purely on the defensive. Paradoxical as it may seem to some, our only hope now of preventing a shooting war is to seize the offensive in the cold war."

We must offer unequivocal military guarantees to the Western Europe union. We must support China in its fight against the communists, economic chaos, and Soviet aggression. We must keep probing for Stalin's weak spots. And we must embark upon a positive and relentless propaganda campaign of our own, not merely on political disputes but on the unworkability and slavery of communism and on the freedom and productivity under capitalism.

That is a far-reaching program indeed, and, at least so far as its basic idea is concerned, it is finding more and more adherents. Its first phase—military alliances with European nations—would mark an almost revolutionary departure for the United States. But there is every reason to believe that it may come—that the next President, be he Truman or Dewey, will ask for it and that the Senate will reluctantly agree. And the second phase—using all the instruments of propaganda to point up the virtues of capitalism and the vices of communism—should, in the view of many, have been followed long ago.

One criticism of our European rehabilitation program is that in some cases it is being used to show up reactionary or leftist governments whose methods of keeping in power aren't much different from those of the communists. Another is that we have failed to put our best foot forward in the ideological battle of words, and the communists and their bed-fellows have had much the best of the fracas. At times, it appears, we have failed to make it clear where the goods came from, and the Russians successfully claimed credit for relief supplies that originated in the U. S. and were paid for, shipped and distributed by the U. S. And some of the State Department's "Voice of America" broadcasts certainly gave an impression of this country that was far from favorable.

The whole matter is ticklish, of course. The Russian procedure of telling a country precisely what kind of a government it must have, and blackjacking it into acceptance if necessary, doesn't jibe with American ideas. And propaganda which was obviously exaggerated would backfire. The goal is to find an effective and appealing way to state the case from free government and a free economy. Our failure or our inability to present that case, in Mr. Hazlitt's opinion, "is the real weakness of the West."

In any event, it looks now as if American policy may be built upon three related foundations—first, far greater firmness than we have shown in the past; second, a steady strengthening of our military forces; third, an effort to give the bewildered peoples of the world a real picture of what the free society offers.

Charges by the CIO that the Wallace third party actually seeks to elect anti-labor Congressmen are betting results. Distinguished Exes Among Those Erected Marble Fountain in Front of Administration Building on Campus

By Billie Money

Familiar to students, old and new alike, of West Texas State for almost a quarter century is the marble drinking fountain which is located in the center of the walk south of the administration building. Not so well known is its inscription and its story.

An ordinary appearing object, the meeting place of many romantic couples, and the bane of countless freshmen compelled to learn its words by upper classmen, the fountain is a memorial to friendship and culture as well as to the man to whom it was dedicated.

Dedicated to Ferdinand Paul Guenther, distinguished scholar, this monument was presented to the college by the graduates of 1925 who compose the most notable class in the history of the school.

Born in Austria, Mr. Guenther came to this country at the age of three. He was educated at St. Mary's College, San Antonio, Texas A. and M., the University of Texas, and universities in Austria, Germany, and France. Mr. Guenther came to West Texas State in 1910 where he served as head of the modern language department until his death in 1925. A worshiper of beauty and nature, he is said to have remarked to a friend upon seeing several young women climb an iron railing and cut through the campus flower garden in order to reach class on time, "You can build a fence that will turn the vicious bull, but you cannot build a fence that will turn the vicious woman."

Included in the membership of this class who are now members of the faculty. They are Mitchell Jones, Dean of Men; Herschel Coffee, Professor of Economics; Dr. Ruth Lowes of the education department; and Miss Bertie Mae Williams, assistant librarian. Others are J. Evetts Haley, well-known historical writer and ranchman; Floyd D. Golden, President of the Eastern New Mexico College; Dr. Bryant Baker, head of the Baker Clinic at Dallas; James McDonald, Wichita Falls juvenile judge; Olin E. Hinkle, Assistant Professor of Journalism at Texas University; Bruce Parker, county attorney and county judge elect, Pampa; Odus Mitchell, North Texas State football coach; Jim Webb, Professor of Education at North Texas; and Law Sone, President of the Texas Wesleyan College, Fort Worth.

James Monroe was the fifth president of the U.S.

"Free" Medical Service Turns Out Expensive

The American people would do well to keep an eye on England's "free" health service which staggered into operation last July. It is the kind of thing that proposals such as the long pending Wagner-Murray-Dingell bill would fasten on this country.

Instead of being "free," the plan will cost the English taxpayers some $600,000,000 a year in the beginning—a very large sum for a country of her population and economic position—and the cost will increase heavily in the future. Workers and employers will also kick in for a period of time. The benefits paid are determined by a mass of confusing regulations, and will run to only about $5.29 a week for the sick worker. Most important of all, there is a definite insufficiency of doctors to carry out all the provisions of the scheme.

The doctor's position is exceptionally interesting. Most of them are refusing to participate, on the grounds that professional standards make it impossible for them to become civil servants. They have asked the government to definitely guarantee that professional freedom will be protected. But that guarantee has not been given.

So it goes in the Socialist Utopia, where everybody is supposed to be protected against everything, and everybody certainly has less and less freedom of choice. Compulsory medical insurance is just the step which precedes socialized medicine—which, in turn, is one more of the steps leading to the all-powerful state. We can profit by Britain's sorry experiments.

"Pack-A-Towel" C. C. W. Project For November 5

As a member of the United Council of Church Women the Canyon Council is sponsoring contributions to World Community Day on November 5.

Because no group in Asia or Europe has suffered more—physically and spiritually—than the young people, this day is being devoted to them. Stabilizing influences of home, community, church and school have been denied them. Yet in their hearts is the same zest for life, the same love of fun and gaiety, the same dreams for tomorrow, that we know in our own youth. So U. C. C. W. proposes that each person send a gift to one of these boys or girls. A gift to pep up their youthful spirits and let them know that the Christian women in America appreciate their dreams and problems, and that we love them.

"Pack-A-Towel" is the theme for this contribution. To put this plan into action start with a pretty bath towel 22 inches wide. On one end of the towel fold new or good-as-new garments—as complete an outfit as you can. Include: bedroom slippers (do not put hard-sole shoes in the towel); new material for dress, (or yarn); sewing kit; soap, comb, tooth brush, hair pins, hankies, socks, stockings, neckties, scarfs packed into a pocketbook, pouch or washcloth, (nothing breakable or spillable); include a friendly note with sender's name and address. Flap other end of the towel over the pile; pin edges together with a dozen assorted safety pins. Pin firmly to it a piece of cloth with large crayon letters B (Boy) or G (Girl) and size.

Bring your bundle to the First Christian Church on November 5 at 3:00 o'clock for dedication. If you find it is impossible for you to attend the services that day, leave a packet with Mrs. E. D. Harrell, Mrs. Claude Moore, Mrs. Gene Root, Mrs. A. W. Sternberg or Mrs. Charles Joyner, who are the active chairmen of this project.

To save $1,122,615 cut from its Foreign Service funds, the State Department has been forced to close two consulates in Mexico, will close four more within the next month in other countries.

Many a true word has been spoken through fact.

A THRILL 'MID TRAGEDY

Here is one of the few thrills West Texas fans got last Saturday night at the Tech game. Eddie Conner is shown above trying to put the Buffs in the scoring column as he races down the sidelines. It is good to see so many Raiders on the ground, even though they didn't remain there long enough to help much.

Freedom Cannot Be a Half-way Proposition Here

As was to be expected, the investigations of communist influences and personalities in the government have been confused by affirmations and denials, charges and counter-charges. The whole story may never be learned. But no one can doubt that these influences have existed—and that they have been tolerated in very high places.

The real, card-bearing communists, and the more timid fellow travelers who follow the party line but can't quite bring themselves to signing on the dotted line, can be ferreted out. The FBI and other agencies have been quietly carrying on an effective work to that end. At there is another phase to the problem which hasn't made the headlines, but in the long run, may be the most serious. That phase is the widespread public indifference to policies and activities which undermine the whole concept of representative government and an economic system based on the freest possible exercise of individual energy, talent and ambition.

If communism, or any other kind of total government, is to gain the driver's seat in this country, two things must happen. First, the basic industries of the nation must be socialized—which is just another way of saying that the instruments of production must be controlled by those who hold political jobs. Those who say that cannot happen here are blind to the lessons of history. We have, for instance, gone a considerable distance in socializing the electric industry. In one region in the Southeast, it has been almost completely socialized. In the Pacific Northwest the government, through its domination of the power supply, is the big boss. These are the entering wedges, the precedents, which fit in perfectly with totalitarian purposes. There is no strong political pressure to extend the program of Federal socialization of power on a nation-wide scale.

Second, total government requires an ever-increasing dependence of the public on government for services and benefits that it once earned for itself. The present name for this is social security. Government is called upon to protect us against unemployment, the economic problems of old age, sickness, and so on. Little by little government becomes the dominating factor in our lives. It daily grows bigger more dictatorial. So, in time, the stage is ready for the dictator—the Hitler who comes to power by constitutional means, and then destroys all constitutional rights.

The kind and well-meaning people who contribute in these ways to the breakdown of principle are serving communism well. Freedom can never be a half-way proposition. We will keep it intact or we will lose it.

Federal Reserve Board is likely to be extensively overhauled if Mr. Dewey takes over the Administration. Board members are supposed to be appointed for fixed terms of 14 years and to be altogether free of partisan politics. But Mr. Dewey is being told that the banking system needs some Governors with different viewpoints, and that a way should be found to replace most of the present Board.

THICK

A hard-riding driver completely ignored a red signal, threatened a traffic policeman's knees, missed the street island by a hair, and grazed a bus, all in one dash. The policeman hailed him and then stroled over to the car, pulling a big handkerchief from his pocket.

"Listen, cowboy," growled he, "on the way back I'll drop this and see if you can pick it up with your teeth."

CUT 'EM OFF

Mr. Fafoofnick stormed into a side street clothing store. "You made for me a suit," he screamed, "the slivvs of which are being run mile too long."

"Well," said the manager, "maybe they are a trifle long."

"Trifle," moaned Fafoofnick. I'm telling you dey are a mile too long! De slivvs!"

"All right," said the manager. "So they are a mile too long. How much shall we shorten them?"

Fafoofnick reflected carefully. "You should take off," he said, "about an eighth uff an ench."

"Well, Tom, he's sorter politickin' roun'."

"And you?"

"Well, I'm sorter farmin' and' a feedin' Dick, John, William an' Tom."

Senators Vandenberg and Taft, the principal Republican leaders of Congress, are not likely to be used much as speakers in the coming election campaign. Governor Dewey's plans call for using Senator Vandenberg only if the Democrats bring foreign policy into the campaign. Senator Taft will be called upon only if Democratic attacks on the record of Congress get too hot.

Senator Taft is said to be planning to use his Senate seniority to get him a place on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. There will be two Republican vacancies on that committee at the next session. Senator Taft's views on foreign policy do not always jibe with those of Senator Vandenberg or Governor Dewey.

Volumes of wheat exports is not likely to make a bit of difference in the domestic price of wheat next year. Domestic supply promises to be large enough to keep wheat prices down near support levels no matter how large the exports. So analysts conclude that the argument about export policy between Commerce Secretary Charles Sawyer and Agriculture Secretary Charles Brannan must be a dispute over politics, not economics.

COUPLE GIVES AWAY 7 CHILDREN!

ONE OF OUR FRIENDS showed us an item in the paper the other day.

It seems a mother and a father were unable to support their seven children—couldn't give them all they should have. So they advertised in the paper that they were giving them away—soon found homes for all seven children.

A pretty tragic thing, but we'll bet there are very few of you who haven't been driven into such wild thinking—worrying where and how you were going to get enough money to give your kids the best.

And yet the solution (or at least a part of the solution) is sitting right there in front of us—automatic savings with U. S. Savings Bonds.

Sure, you know all about U. S. Savings Bonds. But have you ever given them really serious thought?

Have you thought that it's one completely painless, completely automatic way to save? Just a little bit each week through the Payroll Savings Plan (at your office) or the Bond-A-Month Plan (at your bank).

And think about the returns. $4 for every $3 you invest. $400 for every $300. $4000 for every $3000. It mounts up fast.

The chances are one in a million that you'll never have to give your kids away—but you'll never have to give them second best (either) if you start in saving the automatic way with U. S. Savings Bonds. Today.

We were delighted to have Brother Gerald Johnston with us Sunday and enjoyed the services rendered by him very much.

The people of this community voted unanimously to call Bro. Johnston as pastor of our church. He will let us know Sunday if he will accept.

The men of our community sowed wheat for Harney Rogers last Monday. There were 15 tractors and 19 men who participated in this working. At noon, Mrs. S. F. Sharpes, Mrs. Letha Patterson and Mrs. E. M. Wilson served lunch, which was furnished by the ladies of the community. About 5 o'clock in the afternoon Mrs. J. W. Wesley and Vesta Amerson served cookies and cakes to the group. Joyce Lane donated the Cokes.

Mrs. Lola Belle Lang was able to be brought from the Tulsa Hospital last Thursday and is doing very well.

Mrs. Serena Bryan and Mrs. Lester Bryan entertained the people of our community with a Home Demonstration Club party last Saturday evening. The adults enjoyed "42" at 5 tables while the youngsters enjoyed a variety of other games.

Miss Fayerene Schaeffer attended to business in Amarillo Saturday.

supper guests in the J. W. Wesley home Sunday.

Miss Fayerene and Anna Belle Schaeffer of Plainview visited in the parental E. W. Schaeffer home Saturday and Sunday.

F. O. Amerson and Darnell with Mr. and Mrs. Coye Elkins called in the J. W. Wesley home Sunday.

Those having lunch with the J. W. Wesleys Sunday were: the Rev. and Mrs. Gerald Johnston and Stevy. Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Sharpes and Pattajean, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rogers and Joyce, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Wesley, Miss Lavena Amerson and Jerry Shipman.

Next Friday is the date for yard demonstration. We will start at Mrs. G. E. Wesley's at 2:30 o'clock. Next on the tour is the yard of Mrs. H. H. Shipman. Then we will go to the home of Mrs. J. W. Wesley where refreshments will be served. Everyone is cordially invited to this demonstration. We think it will be worth while.

The Fairview church voted to send used clothing to foreign relief. Mrs. J. W. Wesley was appointed to head the organization. If you have things to donate, they must be clean and mended but unpressed. We can send any kind or size of wearable clothing. The brotherhood will take charge of the donations when we get them collected to pack them for shipment. See Mrs. Wesley for further information.

The Wildorado M. S. C. S. were hostess to forty-five guests from Adrian, Vega, Amarillo and Canyon at their zone meeting last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Watson and Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson of Amarillo left Thursday morning for Williams, Ariz., to attend a meeting of Highway 66 delegates.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnie Jenkins were dinner guests at the Carl Fuqua home Friday evening.

The E. T. Allred home was the scene to a happy gathering of relatives and friends who came to spread dinner and help Ira Allred celebrate his seventy-second birthday. Eighty guests were present and among them, all of his brothers and sisters came except his sister who lives in Tucson, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cage spent Saturday night with the Carl Fuquas.

Mrs. Carl Fuqua called on Mrs. Jack Samson Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie Walton spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fuqua at Pampa.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Sharp, formerly of this community, are visiting their son, Emerson and family, in San Francisco, Calif. and vacationing and sight seeing in California.

This community just received a light rain last Monday evening, though heavier rains were received all around. Wheat that has been planted is up and growing and row crops are being harvested.

Socialist Promise of More for Less Work Pure Bunk

Socialism, according to its partisans, is supposed to produce the nearest approach to an earth-bound Utopia, in which everyone will have more of everything, in return for a minimum of work.

However, in practice, even socialism can't rid itself of economic laws which have existed since man first organized a society. An excellent example of this has occurred in England, where Sir Stafford Cripps, the tough-minded leader of the Labor government's economic program, recently told workers that greater production must precede greater rewards. He said, "There is only one way by which we can, with a given volume of employment, increase our standard of living and that is by each of us producing more, or, in other words, putting up our productivity. There is no other answer." He then said that a proposal for increasing wages by cutting into corporate profits made no sense, and pointed out that the profits amounted to next to nothing when compared with wages and salaries.

American labor, fortunately for its freedom and its welfare, has so far been spared from the blight of socialism that has produced inertia and boundless red tape in England. But Sir Stafford Cripps' remarks apply with equal weight in the United States or anywhere else. One of the main reasons for inflation in this country is that labor has sought—and gained—every increasing pay, even as large segments of it have by one means or another reduced individual output. A few labor leaders have themselves pointed to the dangers in this policy, and it is to their great credit that they have done so.

It may be old-fashioned to speak of an honest day's work for an honest day's pay. But the principle that represents was largely responsible for the growth of this country from a colony to the world's foremost industrial power in an incredibly brief period of time. We produced. We got the goods out in an ever-increasing volume. And we earned the highest standard of living in the world by doing it.

The theory of less and less effort for more and more money has been tried, and it has benefited almost no one. What counts isn't the number of dollars in the pay envelope, but what those dollars will buy. The responsibility of American industry is to give labor the finest possible tools to work with. The responsibility of labor is to make those tools do the best possible production job. Then we can create the kind of prosperity that endures, and gives everyone more of the good things of life.

Governor Thomas E. Dewey plans to concentrate on the West and Midwest during his campaign. Chief reason for this decision is that Senate contests in several of these States are very close, and the New York Governor wants to assist Republican senatorial candidates.

U. S. military experts have about decided that Russia cannot count on the support of any satellite army in the immediate future. Russian attempts to create an officer corps in Hungary out of workers is being resisted because the Hungarian Government fears that such an army would endanger the Government itself. In Czechoslovakia, Russians are trying to assign a Soviet Army officer to each Czech regiment.

French Socialists suspect that top French Army leaders are rallying to the De Gaulle banner and want them purged. Since any coalition government of France needs Socialist support, an investigation may be conducted.

Christian Church To Observe Special Services Sunday

The month of October has been designated as Church Loyalty Month in the Christian Church, and Sunday will be Rally Day for the Church School, which begins at 9:45 a. m. At this service all parents and children are urged to be present, so that promotions from one department of the Church School to the other can be made.

Recognition will also be given to the observance of World Wide Communion Sunday at the eleven o'clock service. This of course will not be anything new for the Christian Church since the Lord's Supper is observed every Sunday. The public is welcome to these services.

Chairman Howard McGrath of the Democratic National Committee is angry at "Dixiecrats" chiefly because of the South's failure to contribute to the Democratic Party's campaign chest. It was not until fund raisers tried and failed to get campaign money that the National Committee read Dixiecrats out of the party.

Army Colonel Inspected West Texas State With View of Establishing a New ROTC Unit on the Campus

Colonel Luther B. Matthews, representative of Brigadier General Ralph F. Stearly, Commander of the Fourteenth Air Force based at Orlando, Florida, was on the campus Wednesday to inspect the facilities of West Texas State with the prospective view of establishing an Air Force ROTC unit here.

Colonel Matthews flew in from Florida and conferred with officials during Wednesday morning.

His visit came after Dr. Cornette, president, had initiated communications last July in an effort to get this college considered as a likely institution for the formulation of such an ROTC unit.

After the meeting, Dr. Cornette announced that the Colonel's visit was the first step which had to be taken in order to get recognized for such a service and that his recommendations on his return to Florida will then be forwarded through the administrative levels.

"As to the outcome," said the President, "we will just have to wait. Colonel Matthews, I think, was very favorable impressed with our situation here, particularly the topography of the country, the air-mindedness of the people and the quality of prospective cadets which we would have here. If we are accepted, the earliest possible time for installation of the Unit would be September of 1949."

The recent gift by the city and county of 200 acres to be developed into a first-class airport; plus the fact that we are doing our own aviation instruction now, should help in their considerations.

Students joining such a proposed Unit would not be subject to the draft.

The only colleges in Texas having such Air Force ROTC's are Texas University, S. M. U., Texas A&M, Texas Tech and Baylor.

Levelland Writer Visited Palo Duro State Park Sunday

The following article regarding the beauties of the Palo Duro State Park comes from Jeanette Bryant in the Hockley County Herald:

Visited Palo Duro Canyon Sunday afternoon and we must confess we never realized Texas had anything so magnificent in that particular scenic line. We rather expected just a huge hole in the ground. But it is truly the most colorful and impressive scenic drive we have ever made. It includes 15,103 acres of park land, including picturesque drives, bridge paths, hiking trails, picnic units, cabins and a restaurant which affords a perfect view of the canyon. The erosive formations found in the park are supposed to date back as far as 350,000,000 years. We don't know how they have come to the conclusion but surely they spent much time in research before they could prove it to their satisfaction. We don't intend to argue about the matter, since we have no mental recollection of that age. Indian burial grounds and the dugout of Col. Goodnight, discoverer of the canyon, are interesting spots to visit. The massive, tall peaks have formed lifelike appearing faces and heads, including the Camel's Head, three monkeys, Devil's Tombstone, an Indian Chief and one resembles a lighthouse.

Anyhow, if you have never visited Palo Duro Canyon and State Park, you should take a day off and do so. It is only about one hundred miles from Levelland and what are a hundred miles in West Texas? Just a hop, skip and a jump and you are there.

Fire Prevention Is a Year Round Job For America

"Safety is hard to advertise," says the New York Times. "Most people think they have it, like common sense. Many hazards become contemptible because they are as familiar as the loose wire in the kitchen. . . . Who sees the build-up of static electricity in the dress you clean with gasoline? Even the shock of a big hotel fire wears off and false security exerts its age-old drug."

That is why fire prevention work must never slow down—and why every medium of communication must constantly be employed to keep the menace of fire before the American people. Today fire is costing us some $700,000,000 a year in direct waste alone—and the indirect waste is two to three times as great. Worse still, it is taking more than 10,000 lives. And fire is the cause of about one-fourth of all accidental deaths of children.

According to the best authorities, about 90 per cent of all fires are preventable. They are the product of human carelessness, ignorance or forgetfulness. That goes for the rundown heating plant which sets a home afire—or for the cigarette butt thrown from a car which leads to the ravage of millions of acres of fine timber and the destruction of wild life. The fire which cannot be prevented is rare indeed.

The war against fire is being fought for you—and for everyone else.

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat GOOD PROVIDERS

SINCE COLONIAL DAYS IN AMERICA, TO BE CLASSED AS "A GOOD PROVIDER" HAS BEEN A MARK OF DISTINCTION IN THE COMMUNITY. THE TERM IMPLIES:

— INDUSTRY AND INITIATIVE

— A STRONG SENSE OF FAMILY TIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

— THRIFT AND FORESIGHT

THE GOOD PROVIDER, BY VOLUNTARY ACCEPTANCE OF THE RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE ADVANCEMENT AND SECURITY OF HIS FAMILY, HAS ALSO CONTRIBUTED TO THE ADVANCEMENT AND SECURITY OF THE NATION.

Record Attendance Established at West Texas State 1520 Students As Compared With Record of 1946

West Texas State has the largest enrollment in the history of the school and registration is still not completed.

The time for enrollment to carry a full course is over and the total of students in this category and living on the campus is 1229. Students entering late cannot carry a full course of study. Of these 1229 on campus students, approximately 455 are veterans.

Registration at Amarillo Center has totalled 291 to date but enrollment there is not nearly over.

These combined figures give West Texas State and enrollment of 1520 as compared to 1376 at this same period during the peak enrollment in the fall of 1946.

In the preliminary breakdown of the on-campus enrollment of students carrying a full course, Amarillo leads the out-of-town student parade with 146. Local students residing in Canyon top the list with a mark of 152 enrolled.

Fighting it out in a close battle for the runner-up spot is Childress with 32, Hereford 30, Plainview 30, Floydada 27, Pampa 27, and Borger with 26.

Trailing slightly but still in the above-twenty group is Perryton who has 22 representatives in West Texas State and Happy with 21.

Listed in the towns with ten or more students on the campus are: Canadian 14, Clarendon 10, Dalhart 16, Friona 10, Lockney 12, Panhandle 14, Spearman 13, Stratford 14, Shamrock 17, Tulia 19, Wellington 17 and Vega 16.

Towns registering 5 or more students at West Texas State are: Bovina 5, Channing 5, Claude 8, Wawn 8, Dimmitt 8, Dumas 7, Follett 7, Hart 9, Kirkland 5, Lefors 5, Leveland 6, Lubbock 5, Littlefield 6, Phillips 9, Quanah 6, Juitaque 5, Silverton 7, Skellytown 6, Olton 5, Sunray 8, and Seminole 5.

Students from 108 other Texas towns make up the Texas contingent here at West Texas. Some of the other towns recorded are: Abilene, Austin, Big Spring, Corpus Christi, Dallas, Fort Worth, Fort Stockton, El Paso, Gatesville, Gladewater, Lamesa, Midland, Mineral Wells, Wichita Falls, Weatherford, Wink, Waco and Vernon.

New Mexico led the march of out-of-state students to Canyon with 16 while Oklahoma followed with 9 and California with 4.

Other states represented on the roles are: Kansas, Oregon, Colorado, Michigan, Illinois, Massachusetts, Louisiana, Virginia, Arkansas, Maryland, Missouri and the District of Columbia.

Peru and Puerto Rico are the two foreign countries sending students to this college.

Are Republicans Being Too Cocky For Own Safety

If the standard public opinion polls are to be believed—and their record in predicting elections has been amazingly good—Dewey will beat Truman almost as badly, in popular vote, as Roosevelt beat Landon.

The Roper poll has announced that it does not plan to check on the vote for president again—it considers the matter too cut and dried. That is all very cheering to the GOP. However, its leaders are still counseling against the luxury of over-confidence. They are working on the idea that the fight will be close and tough.

Public School Improvements Add New Lunchroom and Classrooms

Modern Heating Plant Equipment To Be Installed

Many definite improvements have been made around the campus of Canyon Public Schools. New buildings and new equipment have been set up and are ready for use. A cafeteria between the main buildings is one of the outstanding improvements. There are new supplies and equipment in this cafeteria and more are expected by the first of the year. A modern heating plant is to be installed and extended to the additional buildings by the latter part of October.

The new buildings behind the main buildings are not yet completed but are in use. It is expected that it will take most of the year to complete and furnish them. They consist of a vocational agriculture lecture room, band and choir rooms, mechanical drawing rooms, and shop rooms. The new space provided for the band and choir has made possible a highly improved and unified music department. The mechanical drawing class at last has its own drawing instruments and equipment.

The athletic field house, another new addition, has been in constant use since the beginning of the football season. Greater shower facilities and enlarged locker space with sixty giant, fully ventilated, individual lockers have been installed. Additional sidewalks are being laid over the campus and more paving is to be completed by the middle of October.

GREETINGS

Hello, folks! The Canyon Eagle's Tale is right back in its little old groove behind you CHS students. Year after year this paper has been finding its way into your hands. Here's hoping you enjoy reading it! It is to have the year round "quick-up" on everything the "studies" do. No doubt everyone is ready to do a shining year's work, having used "3-in-One" on his brain to eliminate rust and creaking from disuse by such a long vacation.

And why not a great year's work? One just must do his darndest now that there are all the new buildings, new equipment, free text books, etc. Let's roll up our sleeves and get at those lessons with a vim!

Six New Teachers Are Selected

Six new teachers are listed on the Canyon High School faculty roster this year with one for the grade school. Mrs. Edwin Kuehn, a graduate of Vernon High School, who later attended Abilene Christian College and West Texas State College will serve as librarian.

Mr. J. P. McMahan, a graduate of Wichita Falls High School and also West Texas State College is teaching World and American History.

Mr. Jerry Jacobs, a graduate of Spearman High School attended Fordham University in New York City and graduated from West Texas State College with a mathematics major. He teaches Plane Geometry, General Mathematics and Algebra I.

Mr. J. A. Barnett graduated from Bovina High School and graduated from WTS College. Biology and chemistry are his major. He now teaches General Science, Biology, and Algebra I.

Mr. Ray Shultz graduated from Clarks High School, Clarks, Nebraska, and attended WTS College. He teaches Typing and Bookkeeping.

Mr. W. L. Potter graduated from White Deer High School in 1940. He graduated recently from West Texas State College. He teaches Chemistry, Biology, World History, and is assistant football coach.

Mrs. E. F. Welch, new instructor in the grade school, teaching public school music, graduated from Trent High School in Trent, Texas. She attended McMurry College at Abilene, Texas. Last winter she did further work on her major at West Texas State College, and occasionally substituted for Mrs. Herman Demus in grade school who was public school music teacher there last year.

Camilla Davis, a member of the seventh grade, was absent last week due to a cut she received on her heel.

Paula Frazier was chosen sponsor of the Pep Squad in their first meeting September 27.

Area Meeting Is FHA Highlight

Acting as host to Area I, Future Homemakers of America last Saturday, was our own Canyon Chapter. Mable Graham, Area president, called the meeting to order. The FHA song was sung by the group, followed by a greeting given by Mr. E. A. Wooten, superintendent of Canyon Public Schools. Mr. J. E. Miller, principal of Canyon High School, welcomed the visitors. The response was made by the Littlefield Chapter, 186 people representing 39 schools attended the meeting. The officers then reported on their duties. Dr. Jacks, of West Texas State Teachers College, offered an invitation to the Area to have the Spring Council meeting at WT High. Among other interesting announcements was that the FHA had sent more packages to the World Festival than any other organization.

In the afternoon session a sing-song was led by Barbara Brown, song leader from Hale Center. The Moon-shine Boys of CHS, Jimmy Lindsey, Billy Cleavinger, and Don Hickman, entertained the girls while the sponsors held a separate meeting. Reports from the National and State meetings were given by Naneen Campbell, Frances Rowles, and Juanita Davis. Six neighboring schools gave "Interesting Highlights of Our Program." At 3:00 the meeting was adjourned by the group singing "Sing Your Way Home."

FHA Girls Select Plans for Year

Betty Ann Erwin, president of the Future Homemakers of America, Canyon Chapter, presided over meetings held the beginning weeks of school to determine future policies of the organization.

Committees for the year are as follows: Program, June Jennings, Mable Graham, Mary Elizabeth Jennings, Martha Hales, Bertha Lindsey, Anita Ruthart, Joyce Payne, Betty Graham, and Mary Ruth Hill, chairman; Project, Ava Dooley, Lois Collins, Marion McReynolds, Suzanne Stephenson, Peggy Moore, Gladys Thomas, and Marselete Wilson, chairman.

Other officers of the chapter, elected along with Betty Ann Erwin last spring are: Mary Ruth Hill, vice president; Merle Bullard, secretary; Betty Ross Craig, treasurer; Mary Elizabeth Jennings, reporter; Faye Gunter, historian; and Joanna Haines, song leader.

The group has bought a gold-framed mirror for the new living room.

Money to further projects for the chapter is being earned by selling hot dogs, purple and white footballs with white ribbons, purple and white pom-poms and other devices.

The chapter will meet every other Tuesday in the CHS auditorium.

Future Farmers Tie Farwell For Honors

Journeying to Friona Saturday, the FFA boys of Canyon High participated in the Hereford District Judging Contest.

In the Senior Division, which was made up of second and third year students, Canyon tied for first honors with the Farwell Chapter. The total score compiled by both teams were 1440 points. Representing Canyon in this event were Jerre Inman, Larry Prater, Robert O'Donald, and James Inman. Jerre tied for high place honors in the individual scoring contest.

The Junior Division, made up of first year boys, took third place behind Hereford and Dimmitt. This team consisted of the following boys: Landon Barrett, Jack Bonds, Bernice Morris, and Dwayne Currie. Dwayne placed sixth for individual honors.

District chapters represented were Bovina, Farwell, Friona, Hereford, Dimmitt, and Canyon.

Clinton Miller and Gary Barrett accompanied by their Agriculture instructor visited Canyon High, September 27.

Grade Notes

Mrs. Collins enrolled 29 first grade students. Among them were Harrold, Carroll, and Darroll Adams, triplets. Mary Lee Hartman was absent, due to illness.

Enrolling in Mrs. Black's first grade were 30 students. Mary Helen Prater is back after a week end trip to East Texas.

Mrs. Murrell's second grade enrollment at present is 27 students.

After moving to a new location, Mrs. Davis' 26 second grade students are enjoying the playhouse which has been redecorated this year.

During a field trip taken by Mrs. Goodman's 28 third grade students, they visited the homes of James Fungston, Beverly Colwell, Carlyne Glanton, Floyd Rogers, and Patsy Jo Hickman. Mrs. Goodman is testing the children's eyes, using the eye machine given to the school last year by the Lion's Club.

Mrs. Usery's 29 third grade students brought fish and moss to decorate their room. Barbara Tucker moved to Borger.

Mrs. Cousins was honored by a surprise birthday party by her 29 fourth grade students Monday, Sept. 27. Cake and ice cream were served by Mrs. Mariner, Mrs. Boyd, and Mrs. Bolton. Frances Barnes, from New Mexico, visited school last week.

Mrs. Chambers and Mrs. Newton visited Mrs. Brasher's fourth grade last week. The 28 students are studying an Indian Unit.

The fifth grade consists of 56 students, Mrs. Walsh with 27 and Mrs. Jones with 29.

Mrs. Davis' 29 sixth grade students elected officers last week. They were: Lucy Hollabaugh, president; Jean Davis, vice-president; Ruth Ann Bolton, secretary; and Delbert Rogers, room captain.

Joe Dickerson, president; Wilma Arnold, vice-president; Rita Jo Crow, secretary; Alice Mae Simms, reporter; Jack McCormick, fire captain; and Leroy Burrow, window monitor were elected to serve as officers in Mrs. Iverson's sixth grade which consists of 26 students.

The children have decorated the library by bringing feed sack prints which were made into chair covers. New curtains have also been made and a new bulletin board added.

Mrs. Nell Findley substituted for Mrs. Gilmore last week while she was away in Austin on school business.

The city of Danville, Illinois, is located in a coal mining district. It also has marble, zinc and iron works.

Walters Scores Canyon Marker

Purple and White Sharpen Talons for Friday Night

Whetting their talons for the Clarendon Broncos, the Canyon High Eagles make ready for their third skirmish of the season.

Coach R. D. Wheelock's Eagles are expected to be in top physical condition for this conflict. This game will be played at Buffalo Stadium, Friday evening at 8:00 p. m.

Last Friday, before a thrill swept crowd of 1500 people in Panhandle, the Eagles clawed the Panhandle Panthers to the tune of 6-0.

The Panthers received the ball on the kickoff and were forced to forfeit the ball on downs. Receiving the ball, the purple and white started a touchdown jaunt, but was stopped short on the 9 yard line. In the second quarter, against a heavy wind the Panthers punted to their own 30. There the Eagles took over for a touchdown journey with Richard Walters shooting over from 8 yard line. Before the half ended, the ball changed sides several times.

The second half began with a thirty yard pass with Richard Walters tossing to Bruce Winn. Canyon lost the ball on downs. Jimmy Lindsey blocked a punt by the Panthers. Another time the Walters-Winn pass combination was good for sixteen yards.

Late in the fourth quarter, the Panthers started firing passes, but they were broken up by Cleavinger's intercepting one on the fifty yard line. The Panthers hooked the ball again and threw a pass which was intercepted by Prichard in the last play of the game.

Outstanding players in the line were Jimmy Lindsey, Wayne Griffin, Bruce Winn, and Bobby King.

Canyon's back field was striking with Prichard and Walters gaining the most yards for the victors.

CHS Group Visits Yearbook Clinic

Janey Forester, editor of this year's "Soaring Wings," the school yearbook, Laura Davis, society editor, and Mrs. Nora E. Gilmore, advisor, recently attended the annual yearbook clinic in Austin, which is sponsored by the Steck Printing Company there.

Texas University professors, well known artists, and a camera expert from the Eastman Camera Company of Rochester, New York, were the speakers at the clinic which met in the Crystal Ball room of the Driskill Hotel.

CHS representatives toured the Steck Printing shops and saw how the yearbooks were photographed, printed and bound.

boys participated in fishing, swimming, and boating.

The Ag. boys, supervised by Mr. Devin, carried on regular meetings during the summer.

Presbyterian Church Fete New Members At Sunday Services

The Board of Deacons of the Presbyterian Church will sponsor a dinner Sunday evening, October 3rd, at 6:00 p. m. in honor of some 40 members who have been received into membership since January 1st. All members and friends of the church are cordially invited to this covered dish dinner. A program will follow the dinner. The regular young people's meetings and evening services will be dismissed for this occasion.

The Presbyterian Church will join with other churches throughout the world in observing World-wide Communion Service on Sunday, October 3rd. As we observe only four communion services a year, all members are urged to attend this significant gathering around Our Lord's Table. At this service new members will also be received into the Church. The Session will meet at 10:30 to receive the new members.

The Presbyterian Church together with Presbyterian Churches throughout the nation will inaugurate a new departure in the Church School teaching the use of the New Curriculum materials on Sunday, October 3rd. This is a program for Church and Home, and is the result of seven years of study and planning by the Board of Christian Education. The New Curriculum aims to bring a closer relationship between parents and their children in their Christian training. The books and quarterly magazines are of the highest quality available from book publishers today, and the educational methods are up-to-date. These lessons aim to cover the study of the Bible in a three-year cycle under the themes: The Life of Christ, The Bible, and The Church. Under the leadership of the Superintendent, Roy N. Byrd, Jr., the last of four meetings for teachers and parents in preparation for use of the materials will be held Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock.

The Rev. Benjamin E. Bollman and H. S. Strain attended the Fall meeting of Amarillo Presbytery on Thursday, Sept. 23, in the First Presbyterian Church of Pampa.

Dr. Jarrett to peak At Christian Church

Dr. Robert Jarrett of the Medical and Dental Clinic will speak to the Disciples Student Fellowship at the First Christian Church, Sunday at 6 p. m.

Dr. Jarrett will speak on the theme, "What is Wrong With Socialized Medicine?"

Anyone wishing to hear Dr. Jarrett speak on this topic is welcome to attend.

Charles De Gualle, famous French leader and soldier, was born in Lille, France on the 22nd day of November, 1890.

40 Million Are Number Electric Connections Now

In the second week of September, the 40-millionth customer of the electric industry came on a power line somewhere in this country. During the working hour in which that customer was given service, some 1,200 other new users also started to receive electricity. This year has witnessed a record number of new connections. During the first six months of 1948 they totaled 1,123,000, of which the great majority were rural and urban residential consumers.

This country has come remarkably close to the goal of complete electrification. About 97 per cent of all the occupied family dwellings in the United States now have power available, and 94 per cent are actually taking service. The industry is giving particular attention to completing the job of electrifying the farms. Within a relatively short time, practically every farm in the country will have central station service at hand.

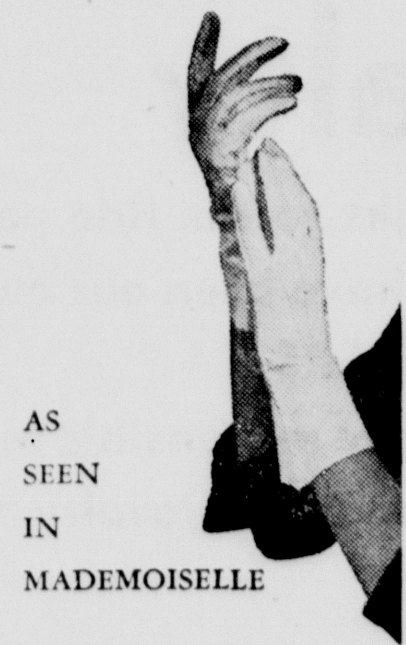

So much publicity has been given to the government's power projects that the achievements of the business-managed electric companies have been dwarfed in many minds. Yet private enterprise, backed with private capital, is dominant in the field. Of the 40,000,000 customers now taking service, more than 82 per cent receive power from the private industry. All the government agencies, Federal, municipal, REA, and so on, account for only 18 per cent. The socialized power zealots do most of the talking and boasting—while private enterprise does most of the work. The 40-millionth customer marked another milestone in the industry's unbroken march of progress.

British and French officials privately are counting on Governor Dewey, as President, to make the Marshall Plan operate more smoothly. They reason that Mr. Dewey will replace Gen. Lucius D. Clay, U. S. commander in Berlin, thereby removing Western Germany's strongest advocate in recovery planning. Other countries still think Germany gets too big a share of Marshall Plan dollars.

The House Un-American Activities Committee is resorting to secret sessions because members actually have been influenced by charges that in public sessions irresponsible "smear" tactics have been used. In forthcoming hearings, evidence is expected to be more carefully substantiated.

Some soil chemists in the Department of Agriculture have doubts about recently developed "wonder" insecticides. The insecticides permit higher crop yields for a year or two, but the scientists find that repeated use damages the soil, perhaps permanently.

Paul Hoffman, Marshall Plan Administrator, is going to have a hard decision to make if and when a British-Russian trade deal is completed. The British want Russian grain under a four-year plan and propose to pay for it with machine tools and similar industrial equipment. They hope Mr. Hoffman will interpret the Economic Co-operation Act liberally when it comes to approving the trade, since U. S. can veto any trade that builds Russia's war machine.

Sir Stafford Cripps, when he visits the U. S., will try to convince U. S. bankers and Government officials that Great Britain has no intention of devaluing the pound. He feels that Britain has controlled her inflation much better than the United States that, on a basis of British prices, the pound should be closer to $4.50 instead of the official rate of $4.03.

John L. Lewis's support of Governor Dewey is likely to take the form of attacks on President Truman rather than outright support of the Republican candidate. One reason why Mr. Lewis may be reluctant to support Republicans openly is that most miners in the West Virginia and Kentucky are backing Democratic candidates for Congress.

Buffaloes Take Thrilling Game From Abilene Christian College at Buffalo Stadium on Saturday Night, 41-19

After rolling to a 20-0 halftime lead, Frank Kimbrough's West Texas Buffaloes held their own during a wild and woolly last half to beat Abilene Christian College 41-19. The win was the second of the season for the Buffs, both of which were accomplished in the home pasture.

Key to the West Texas victory was the way V. T. Smith, the Wildcat one-man team, was held in check. Except for one run, a 61-yard dash to pay dirt in the third quarter, he was held completely in check.

Cloyce Box, big West Texas quarterback put the Buffs in front after 11 minutes of action in the first period. Bill Womack, ACC reserve back, fumbled on the Wildcat 19 yard line and the Buffs recovered. From there Lloyd Johnson juggled the ball on the one foot line. Box crossed the double stripe on his second attempt. Junior Melton booted the extra point.

Bill Cross stole Smith's thunder on the last play of the second quarter to put the Buffs ahead by two Touchdowns. After Smith had kicked the ball out of bounds on the West Texas 21, Cross, the "Canadian Comet," streaked around his own right end after taking a lateral from Box and outran the Wildcats to the goal line, 79 yards away. Lloyd Johnson escorted him to the score. Melton's kick again was good.

Another long run ended the Buffalo scoring for the first half. Lloyd Johnson scampered 43 yards to pay-dirt after nine and one-half minutes of action in the second period. Following beautiful blocking, Johnson rounded his own left end and outran the 'Cats once in the clear. Melton's kick was wide.

Both teams ran wild in the last half, especially during the third quarter. West Texas tallied 21 points in the last half, 14 of them coming in the third period. Abilene Christian scored 19 points in the last half, 13 of them in the third round.

Johnson plunged to his second touchdown to give the West Texans a 27-0 advantage early in the last half.

With passes gaining most of the yardage, the Wildcats scored their first touchdown shortly after "Onion" Brown was slick as his name-sake in pushing one yard to the score.

Not to be outdone, the Thundering Herd roared right back to score again. Charles Wright returned the kickoff to the ACC 45. He then plunged it to the 35. Then Ernest Kendrick broke through tackle and scampered to the TD. The run was the best of the game. Kendrick went through the entire Wildcat team with very little help from the blockers.

Whereupon, Smith plunged over tackle, broke into the secondary and raced 61 yards to his touchdown.

The Buffaloes were determined to score again in the third period but failed by 50 seconds. They were on the Wildcat's 33 when the two teams changed ends of the field.

But two plays and 50 second later, Box plowed over from the two yard stripe.

Russell Coffee hit Roy Breen with a desperation pass late in the fourth period for the last ACC touchdown.

Coffee was a pain-in-the-neck all evening. His passing was a constant threat.

Lloyd Johnson finally came of age as a Buffalo runner in this game. He repeatedly utilized his blinding speed to good advantage.

Flu Shows 40% Increase Over Last Year's Texas Record

The 414 cases of influenza reported in Texas last week, bring the incidence of this disease up to forty per cent more than the seven year median, as shown from the figures submitted by the 181 counties sending in reports to the State Health Department.

Influenza without complications may be a fairly mild ailment, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, but, he pointed out, complications can turn this disease into a dangerous condition very quickly.

"Many cases of influenza are mild," Dr. Cox said. "Often they lend themselves to treatment readily. However, two important factors enter into the treatment of influenza, and they are, calling the family physician as soon as the first symptoms appear, and taking life very easy for a reasonable length of time after the acute stage has subsided."

Dr. Cox declared that influenza is not mass-controllable. He emphasized that maintaining the highest possible health level at all times affords an individual the best protection from contracting this disease.

"Getting plenty of sleep and rest, daily exercise in the open, nourishing foods, and strict personal hygiene are our best known defenses against influenza," Dr. Cox said. "This applies to all respiratory diseases. A person who avoids all habits and practices detrimental to a maximum well-being and thus builds up a strong resistance to disease, is much less likely to contract influenza than is the individual who does not guard his health in this manner."

Freshmen Whip A.&M. Thursday

Future Buffaloes, the freshman football team, showed their stuff for the first time last Thursday night as they journeyed to Goodwell, Oklahoma for a game with Panhandle A.&M., whipping them 13-6.

Coach Borden Price reported last week that the fish made a total of four touchdowns, but that two of them were called back.

The first score that counted was made by Wayne Sullivan of Phillips who ran 45 yards for the score on a naked reverse play. He was untouched by A.&M. players on his jaunt. E. C. Seifert, fullback from Level-land was responsible for the second Junior Buffalo score.

Tom Airhart was responsible for the extra point.

'Lonely Passage' by Loula Grace Erdman Receiving Wide Approval by the Literary Critics of the Nation

By Billie Money

"Lonely Passage," latest novel by Miss Loula Grace Erdman, West Texas State's prize winning story writer, is now off the press and is now on sale at Warwick's. This book follows by scarcely more than a year the publication of "Years of the Locust," $10,000 award winner.

Miss Erdman is now ranked as a successful novelist by critics who consider the second novel as being of the same high quality as the first.

Two autograph parties were held in Amarillo Monday for the author and her new book. From 1 o'clock until 4 o'clock, Miss Erdman was at Russell's Stationery Company, and from 4 o'clock to 6 o'clock, she was at Cooper and Melin's.

On September 28, Miss Erdman will be in Kansas City where she will appear on radio broadcasts in connection with her book. The national sale of "Lonely Passage" will be launched there by the publishers, Dodd, Mead, and Company of New York.

In speaking of "Lonely Passage," Miss Erdman said, "I like the last book, personally, better than the first," and added that she thought it would especially interest young people.

As in "The Years of the Locust" the story portrays a realistic picture of the ordinary people and their simple, "every day" lives. The plot reveals the experiences of a young girl, Thirley Renfro, in a community composed almost entirely of kin-folks. It is a heart warming narrative of the young woman's fight against loneliness, in which things of little significance grow to become of utmost importance in her life.

"Everyone has an inner core of loneliness which they are not to fear," the author stated when discussing Thirley. "The spark of loneliness is a spark of immortality."

Miss Erdman has gone to her childhood home for the background characters and true-to-life situations in her books. She was born in rural Missouri near Blackburn and attended the country school which was founded by her grandfather. Later she returned to teach in the same school.

The writer attended Central Missouri State College, University of Wisconsin, University of Southern California, and received her Master's Degree from Columbia University. She has been a member of the West Texas State faculty for three years, coming to Canyon from Amarillo.

The State Constitution provides that, every 10 years, the state shall be re-districted, in accordance with the new census. But Texas has not been re-districted since 1921.

There have, of course, been many changes in population in 27 long years. The result is a situation of gross inequality. There are some House of Representatives districts with five or six times as many people as some other districts.

Nor is this unfair condition confined to a single part of the State. It has been said that South and West Texas are being discriminated against by the failure of the legislature to do its duty. And this is true. But consider that there is one East Texas district with 109,000 and there are lots of districts over the State with less than 25,000 citizens and one with only 19,000. Contrast this one with a second district in East Texas with 127,000 inhabitants.

Yet the district with only 19,000 people has the same power in making laws as the district with 127,000—six times more people, presumably paying six times as much taxes.

The same condition prevails with regard to the State Senate. One district has 110,000 people and another has 463,000, which is the 1940 census, and the late estimate is that the district has grown to 754,000. It is the Lower Grande Valley district.

Repeatedly, the legislature has failed to do its duty. Now the people have a chance to take action. In the November 2 general election, Constitutional Amendment 2 will be voted on. This provides that a commission shall have power to re-district if the legislature refuses. The commission will consist of the lieutenant governor, speaker of the House, attorney general, state comptroller and land commissioner.

A situation whereby a man living in one district has only one-sixth of the voice in the making of the laws under which he lives as a man somewhere else is not democracy. It is indefensible.

Let's pass Constitutional Amendment 2 and change that condition!

Predicted record corn crop means more meat—and perhaps cheaper meat—for harassed housewives in 1949. It may also, by easing the meat shortage, allow more cattle to mature and thus take the pinch off the shoe business. Shoe manufacturers, now caught between the high cost of leather and the rising tide of buyer resistance, probably won't feel the relief for yet another year.

Borden Milk Co. is deep in a long-range diversification program to cut its dependence on milk products. Soon to be completed: a $3 million soybean extraction plant at Kanakake, Ill.

With the margin of error the U. S. Treasury now allows itself in an annual estimate, the early Republic could have financed itself through eight administrations.

In the Presidential election of 1896 William McKinley, the Republican candidate, had a six hundred thousand plurality of votes over his democratic opponent, William Jennings Bryan of Nebraska.

There are 4 gills to a pint.

U. S. Air Force pilots probably will be flying the first 700-800 mph short-range bomber within a year. The plane's bomb load capacity of several tons will give plenty of room for the atom bomb.

Henry Wallace's real motive in his ill-starred Southern tour was not to win votes in the South, which he knew was hopeless, but to create the situation he did to win wavering Northern Negro votes.
